

INTRODUCTION

This course sets the stage for an urgent call to the body of Christ to rise up and reclaim the mantle of the prophets in these critical times. The course draws a parallel between the "sons of the prophets" in Elijah's day and the believers of today, who are called to walk in the same anointing and power to confront the growing darkness in the world.

The course highlights the stark contrast between the miracles and demonstrations of power seen in the Bible, and the current state of the church, which is struggling to match the supernatural works of Jesus and the early disciples. The course laments the spread of wickedness, Satanism, divorce, violence, and sickness, and reminds the readers of Jesus' promise that believers would do even greater works than He did.
